League of Southeastern Credit Unions & Affiliates Honors 3 Atlanta Credit Unions with Credit Union National Association's Statewide Awards

ATLANTA, GA – The League of Southeastern Credit Unions & Affiliates (LSCU), through the Credit Union National Association's (CUNA) award platform, recently recognized three Atlanta-area credit unions for outstanding outreach to their members and communities.

Southeastern credit unions help people afford life in a variety of ways and, each year, CUNA provides LSCU with a way to recognize these efforts with a statewide awards program. The program features four awards, which credit unions compete for within categories based on asset size.

The Dora Maxwell Social Responsibility Community Services Award commends a credit union for its outstanding efforts in community projects. The Louise Herring Award for Philosophy in Action honors credit unions that are making exceptional efforts to include credit union philosophy into daily operations. And the Desjardins Financial Education awards celebrates leadership in both youth and adult financial literacy initiatives.

"This past year has been a challenging one both for credit unions and for the members they serve," said Jared Ross, president of LSCU. "We're always pleased to celebrate the best of the best in an industry already known for its service to members – but this year in particular, we feel it's vitally important to celebrate the credit unions that have gone all-in on demonstrating the credit union difference."

This year, the following Atlanta credit unions were recognized:

- Delta Community Credit Union won the Desjardins Financial Education Awards in both the adult and youth categories among credit unions with 1 billion or more in assets.
- Platinum Federal Credit Union won the Dora Maxwell Social Responsibility Community Services Award among credit unions with between $50 million and $250 million in assets.
- Georgia United Credit Union won the Dora Maxwell Social Responsibility Community Services Award among credit unions with 1 billion or more in assets.

The award-winning submissions from Georgia have been entered in the national awards program administered by CUNA. The results of the national contest will be announced in November.
