Full DescriptionAre We the Place For You?

Credit Union of Atlanta ($84M, Atlanta, GA) is seeking our next President/Chief Executive Officer. Headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, Credit Union of Atlanta serves over 14,000 members. The Credit Union was founded in 1928, in the midst of the excessive Roaring Twenties and just before the Great Depression. Through times of great financial strength and financial strife, Credit Union of Atlanta has maintained stability and security through our strong foundation and the holistic success of our members. From the heart of the jazz age to the present day, we're still jazzing it up for our members. With unique offerings and always-reasonable rates, we strive to make a well-rounded financial life possible for all.

Our President/CEO will bring innovative thinking and leadership that ensures we fulfill our top strategic priorities of delivering responsive member service, deploying leading-edge technology, and creating an environment where teamwork and staff succession planning lead to future growth. We strive to be the financial services provider of choice in our diverse communities one member at a time. Atlanta is not only one of the most affordable major metros in the country for rent, utilities, and food, but it also has amenities that many other regions simply don't. From mountain trails to performing arts to an active downtown, we have everything to love about a city.

Is This the Career For You?

Credit Union of Atlanta's mission is "To provide financial solutions to meet the needs and improve the quality of life for our members." Our next President/CEO must lead us to fulfill that mission as we grow. Our field of membership is broad and offers tremendous opportunity for expansion and community engagement. As a CDFI, we embrace serving the underserved in our diverse communities.

This President/CEO role provides an exceptional opportunity to lead this organization forward, alongside a highly competent team and under the strategic direction of an engaged Board of Directors. A collaborative spirit and a genuine interest in being part of the community will help you align your team around our shared common purpose. Superior strategic vision, with a propensity for decisive leadership that incorporates the perspectives of others, will position us to seize opportunities as we build toward the future.

Exceptional interpersonal skills will help you foster strong communication with the staff, members, volunteer leadership, employer groups, and the communities where we operate. As a forward-thinking leader, you should be well versed in all categories of credit union operations resulting in the alignment of the organization around the needs of our members and our communities, leveraging our team and technology to build touchpoints that deliver service excellence.
