League of Southeastern Credit Union & Affiliates honors MPS Credit Union as Credit Union of the Year

Miami, Fla. – The League of Southeastern Credit Unions & Affiliates (LSCU) recently recognized Miami Postal Service Credit Union in Miami, Fla., with its 2019 Credit Union of the Year award for credit unions with between $100 million and $500 million in assets.

Institutions honored as Credit Union of the Year demonstrate the all-around best the industry has to offer. These credit unions have accomplished outstanding achievements in the areas of daily operations, financial prowess and community outreach.

MPS Credit Union celebrated 90 years of serving members in 2019 in the best way it knew how – by giving back to its members. During 2019, MPS Credit Union served its membership by:

- Offering deposit and loan promotions reflecting the credit union's 90 years in business
- Awarding $90 to one lucky member each month
- Receiving the Juntos Avanzamos designation for excellence in serving the Hispanic and immigrant communities by providing education and services that improve financial well-being
- Serving everyone in need in South Florida through its Community Development Financial Institution designation

"We are always proud of the great work all our credit unions do on behalf of their members and communities," said Jared Ross, president of LSCU. "These awards give us a way to show our appreciation to those who truly went above and beyond in their duty to help people afford life. On behalf of the League, I am humbled to be able to thank them for their outstanding service."

MPS Credit Union was one of nine credit unions honored with 2019 Credit Union of the Year awards. Three winners were selected from each state in the LSCU footprint – Alabama, Florida and Georgia. One winner from each state was selected from three different asset-size categories. The League announced each of these winners via its social media Oct. 13.
