LSCU Announces Congressional Endorsements in Georgia

DULUTH, GA — The League of Southeastern Credit Unions (LSCU), representing Georgia credit unions and their 2.3 million members, is proud to announce key federal endorsements for candidates in the 2024 election cycle.

The list of endorsements is as follows:

- Representative Buddy Carter (GA-01)
- Representative Sanford Bishop (GA-02)
- Representative Nikema Williams (GA-05)
- Representative Rich McCormick (GA-07)
- Representative Mike Collins (GA-10)
- Representative Barry Loudermilk (GA-11)
- Representative David Scott (GA-13)

“As advocates for the credit union movement, we proudly stand with these Georgia lawmakers who support their communities by promoting financial well-being for all,” announced Samantha Beeler, President of LSCU. Their support is not just legislative; it's a vote of confidence in the 'People Helping People' philosophy that credit unions stand for.”

With these endorsements, LSCU will provide these candidates with financial and grassroots support. Ahead of elections, credit unions and their members will have various opportunities to engage with these supported candidates throughout the coming months.

“These members understand the unique challenges facing Georgia credit unions and work diligently to ensure our voices are heard and represented throughout the echo chambers of Congress. As small businesses wholly committed to helping consumers achieve their own American Dream, we appreciate Congress’ work to protect and enhance the operating environment for credit unions,” stated Grace Newcombe, Vice President of Federal Advocacy and Communications.
