Members ATM Alliance Announces Strategic Partnership with CrossState Solutions

DULUTH, GA — Members ATM Alliance (MAA) is excited to announce a new partnership with CrossState Solutions, marking a significant step forward in expanding its outreach and services to credit unions nationwide. This collaboration will enhance MAA's ability to connect with credit unions in Pennsylvania and New Jersey affiliated with CrossState, providing them with top-tier ATM and ITM services and solutions.

Through this partnership, MAA will receive support from CrossState Solutions, which will help MAA effectively communicate its offerings and benefits to the association's extensive network of credit unions.

"We are thrilled to partner with CrossState," expressed Kyle Fowler, Vice President of MAA. "This collaboration allows us to extend our comprehensive set of ATM services to more credit unions and provides a valuable platform to engage with potential clients. The opportunity to participate in CrossState's events is an added advantage that will facilitate deeper connections and mutual growth."

Monika Edlis, Director of Solutions Engagement at CrossState Solutions, expressed her enthusiasm about the partnership: "We believe this collaboration with Members ATM Alliance is a game-changer for our credit union members. By providing comprehensive ATM managed services, we are not only helping credit unions save money and streamline operations, but we are also enhancing the overall member experience with cutting-edge technology and unparalleled convenience.”

MAA’s partnership with CrossState enables MAA to better serve the needs of credit unions in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, enhancing their access to reliable ATM services. This alliance underscores the company’s commitment to supporting the financial infrastructure of credit unions and their members. By joining forces, both organizations can leverage their strengths to drive more excellent value and innovation in the financial services sector.
